President Hawgood Dealing With Seaside.

FIFTEEN MILES IS PROMISED

Fair Proposition Made to the Coast Resort—Astoria Will Have to Put up Rights-of-Way—Time to Get in on the Scheme.

Portland, March 1, 1908.

Hon. W. S. Henninger, Mayor, Seaside, Oregon: President Hawgood answers from Los Angeles, my telegram of yesterday, as follows: "Company's executive committee, before acceding to your request to withdraw terminus from Seaside, asks Seaside committee to telegraph immediately whether or not Seaside people guarantee absolutely to secure rights of way for four miles, 32 acres in all, before 15th April, so as to commence construction at Seaside April 30th; all deeds to be deposited in escrow with Mayor of Seaside and Daniel Moore, trustees, and to be delivered after railway shall have constructed 15 miles in the direction of the Nehalem river.

(Signed), WILLIAM REED, Secretary."

The above is the latest phase in the progress and prospects of the Portland-Oregon Seacoast Railway Company, of which Mr. Reed is the representative in this section. It would seem from the foregoing, that the company has decided that a "half-loaf is better than none," and proposes to commence construction out from Seaside, between April 15th and 30th, for 15 miles toward the Nehalem, depending on rights-of-way accruing under the above stipulation; which, if carried out, will give an impetus to that enterprise, that Astoria cannot afford to overlook.

According to Mr. Reed, in a communication just at hand, if Astoria wants the line within her borders, she must contribute the right-of-way hither, or at least to a waterfront on Young's Bay. And, he continues, if Seaside decides to build a "Chinese wall" around the project, also, and will not allow the company to build from there to the Nehalem on the basis suggested, the Hawgood people will build, this spring, from the Willamette Valley, in a westerly direction, to Jewell, or Elsie, in this county, and thence down the lower Nehalem Bay, and to Astoria.

If the pending Seaside offer is accepted and the road starts out from there, it intends to rely on the Killingsworth Law, of 1905, to get into this city over the tracks of the A. & C. end of the Northern Pacific system; and anticipates conclusions with a strong opponent in lumber and other staples; the shorter haul into Seaside from the Nehalem forests, giving the Seaside millers a huge advantage over the Astoria plants as to cost of handling and quicker and cheaper delivery.

The Astorian is not in a position to forecast the result of President Hawgood's last despatch in the premise; but it may suggest that from the color of things as represented by Mr. Reed, it is time Astoria was taking hold of this proposition and doing something very tangible with it.

"SIS IN NEW YORK."

"Hurray" for Posey County, "Injiana"! That's where "Sis" hails from, and she is coming with her company of dancers, joke tells and fiddlers to let light on a recent trip the bunch made to New York. They say that it's the funniest ever. "Sis" has always proven a big card locally, but indications point to her new show as being the best she has offered. It is called "Sis" in New York" and will be here on Saturday night, March 7.

UNIMPORTANT BILLS PASSED

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Senator William Alden Smith today spoke against the railroad bond feature of the Aldrich currency bill now pending before the Senate. Most of the day was devoted to the passage of bills which are not of general importance.

CHIEF KILLS ANARCHIST

When he rang the door bell at the latter hour, the chief himself answered the call.

"As I opened the door," said the chief, "the man raised his hat and I allowed him to step into the hallway. He handed me an envelope. I glanced at it and the thought struck me that he was up to some wrong. He looked like an anarchist and I grabbed his arms and called to my wife who was in another room. When she ran into the hallway I said: 'Mother, see if this man has a revolver?' she felt in one of his back pockets and said he had. I tried to hold him with one hand and draw my revolver with the other, but he jerked away and fell against the door. I caught him again and while we were struggling, my son, who was upstairs, started to my aid. He was only a few steps from the bottom of the stairs when the man freed one hand, drew his revolver and fired two shots at Harry. Then Foley, who had been summoned by my daughter, stepped into the hallway and the man shot him. The anarchist kicked my wife to one side and by this time I had secured my revolver and both Foley and I opened fire. At my first shot, which struck him in the head, he fell. I fired three more, one in his head and two in his body. Two of Foley's shots also struck the assassin."

Both the chief and Mrs. Shippy assert that the life of the former was saved by the bravery of their son. The young man who is a student at Culver Military Academy, is 18 years old. He was home because of illness and hastened to his father's aid when he heard the struggle in the hall.

"The man had drawn a great knife and had plunged at my husband," said Mrs. Shippy this afternoon.

"The knife was drawn back ready for another blow when Harry struck the man's hand, knocking the weapon to the floor. The man kicked me and the shots came, Harry falling, and I saw blood on his chest. He exclaimed, 'Papa, I'm shot!' but he saved his father's life."

"I might have been shot and killed if my boy had not come to my assistance," said the chief. "Mother was too terrified to do anything. She was helpless as soon as she felt the revolver in the man's pocket."

One of the places raided by the police after the shooting was the headquarters of a society known as "Edelstadt Group" at 42 Union street. Pictures of Herr Most and other well known anarchists were confiscated as were about 1000 hand bills announcing a series of meetings at which Emma Goldman is scheduled to speak. The library, a short distance away, was also invaded by the police and several hundred pamphlets dealing with anarchy and kindred subjects were seized.

LATER.

The would-be assassin of Chief Shippy was identified tonight as Lazarus Averbuch, who lived with his sister at 218 Washburn avenue. He was a Russian student about 22 years old. He came to America from Austria about three months ago and had been here about three weeks. The plan to kill Shippy is believed to be the direct result of the latter's interference of a parade of the unemployed several weeks ago.

JOINS FIRE DEPARTMENT.

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Brig Gen. Jos. Stephens Adams of the Austro-Hungarian army is soon to become a member of the local fire department not because he needs the money but to get experience for the benefit of the fire department at home which comes under his jurisdiction. At present Gen. Adams is attached to the fire department of Philadelphia.

Gen. Adams is armed with credentials from Hungary. The fire department at Buda Pest is under his immediate direction. Besides the regular horse-pulled engines in Buda Pest there are some twenty of more electric propelled engines which can be driven through the streets of the city at the rate of 80 miles an hour.

With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. PEONAGE CHARGES.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A variety of subjects was considered by the House today. A resolution was passed authorizing the immigration committee to investigate the charges of peonage in certain states. In the debate on that question Clark of Florida denounced the assistant attorney general Russel in connection with certain prosecutions in Florida and referred sarcastically to Attorney-General Bonaparte. There followed a lively discussion of the bill to deport, after serving their sentences all aliens convicted of felony. The measure was defeated. Four hundred pension bills and few other private bills were passed and the remainder of the time was consumed in considering the postoffice appropriation bill which it is said will be discussed for several days. An important bit of legislation was offered in the House by Heyburn through bills imposing a tax of 50 cents per hundred shares of stock or agreements to sell.

THE STAR THEATRE.

The innovation introduced at the Star Theatre last night was greeted by a large audience, "standing room only" being the order. The Donald-Bell Company presented the beautiful drama, "The Battle for Life," in a manner that pleased those who attended the performance. Miss Ethel Tucker, the leading lady who played the character of Dolores, rendered the part in a lifelike, natural manner and received the applause that was due here. Mr. Donald, as Dick, the villain, was true to the character he portrayed, while Mr. Bell, as the Mexican, was all that could be desired and his death scene as well as the duel scene with the villain was very realistic. Mr. Donald shared honors with

100 YEARS HENCE.

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Predictions that 100 years hence the island of Manhattan will be foreign missionary field, to which a Christian church would be sending workers was made yesterday morning by Dr. Chas. Jefferson in his tenth anniversary sermon at the Broadway Tabernacle, the oldest Congregational Church in the United States. "While the church has been filled with doubts and fears," he said, "there has been an ever deepening estrangement between the church and large classes of our population. It is a world wide phenomenon. Philosophy and science have shaken religious faith. Socialism has made tremendous strides in every Christian country and the end is not yet.

"Manhattan Island is more and more the Paris of pleasure seekers and the London of business; it is more and more a foreign city. Of our 2,500,000 population, the Roman Catholic Church claims 930,000. There are at least 600,000 non-Christians, leaving a Protestant remnant of only 720,000 which is 50,000 less than it was 20 years ago. Only the smallest fraction of these 720,000 nominal Protestants have any connection with the churches."

A severe cold that may develop into pneumonia over night, can be cured quickly by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It will cure the most obstinate racking cough and strengthen your lungs. The genuine is in a yellow package. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

U. S. DEPOSITS GOING BACK.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The sub-treasury was in receipt of heavy payments from depositories of United States funds yesterday, the action of the secretary of the treasury in calling for $35,000,000 public deposits, which the banks of the United States are to return by March 23, being the reason. Large banks in the financial districts have been expecting such a move, and have been preparing for it. The greater part of the deposits were made by the secretary of the treasury during the money stringency in October and November.
